APPEAL

We would like to remind all the Electrical Contractor License holder of Class-A, Class-B and Class-C to strictly adhere to their assigned responsibilities and avoid interfering in cases or projects where they are not directly involved. Any actions outside the scope of your designated work or interference in matters handled by other contractors will not be tolerated.

2. We have noticed instances where contractors are stamping or intervening in cases outside their jurisdiction. This causes unnecessary confusion and compromises the implementation of safety regulations. If any kind of mishappening will occur in these cases concerned Electrical Contractor who are involved in stamping process will solely be responsible for same.

3. Please be advised that moving forward, any contractor found engaging in such activities will face appropriate action, which could include penalties or suspension of their electrical contractor license.

4. Thank you for your understanding and commitment to maintaining a professional and cooperative work environment for ensuring/ implementing the safety requirements in Generation, Transmission, Distribution, and Utilization of electrical power.
